Final 4 - 4:00 p.m.

From a very strong field of 182 players, only eight remain in the 2003 Brunswick Senior World Open main event. At 10:00 a.m. today, these great players will square off to go for the top four where one will possibly win the top prize of $20,000. Two of these players (one from each division) and two players from the ongoing Second Chance Tournament will make up the final four.

The number one seed in the 50-59 division, Ty Dawson, defeated Bob Chamberlain 2-0 to advance Wednesday. The number two seed, Henry Gonzalez, defeated Jim Johnson 2-1 to earn his spot in today's competition. Defending champion Bob Glass and Rod McLean both won three matches Wednesday to advance. Glass defeated Mike Henry, Gip Lentine, and Willie Willis on Wednesday. McLean knocked off Johnny Petraglia, Mitch Jabczenski and Greg Waldon.

Ty Dawson has definitely been the hottest player all week, but he will face his greatest challenge this morning when he takes on Bob Glass. Glass commented before leaving Wednesday that he would have his hands full with Dawson. "Ty is the man to beat if I want to win the title again this year," he said. "If I can get through that first match against him, then I might have a chance to repeat, but it won't get any easier after that."

In the 60+ Super Seniors group, the four players remaining are Ron Garr, Roy Buckley, Gene Stus and the number one seed, Darryl Storkson. Storkson did not have to compete Wednesday because he earned three byes for being the qualifying leader in his division.

Garr advanced by defeating Dennis Greene, Jim Servis and Larry Galloway to advance. Buckley defeated Dick Baker, Hal Wilber and Ron Winger. Stus got by Ernie Schlegel, Jim Brenner and Teata Semiz to make the top eight.

Two players from the Second Chance Tournament will join the top two main event players in a main event stepladder finals today at 4:00 p.m.
